Today's Focus: The Healing Touch

The Church—the Body of Christ—is like other bodies. We are often in need of healing and wholeness. This calls us to be humble enough to acknowledge our own needs, and to be Christ's healing touch for others.

Living & Praying with the Word

God of compassion, we pray in the psalm, "Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved." Free me to turn to you in total honesty. Let me cry out with the leper, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Touch me as you touched others, so that I can hear Jesus say to me, "I do will it. Be clean." Then help me imitate his unconditional love by touching others who need healing.

From the Team Moderator's Desk (Father Rick):

Ash Wednesday Masses – Are at 12 Noon (Fr. Rick) and 7PM (Fr. Bob).

Grateful words of heartfelt thanks to a.) All who helped prepare for our celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Dedication of our church facility, to Bishop James Schuerman, Frs. Robert Bales and Richard Breitbach, Deacon Bob Derks for helping us observe this special occasion!

My Dad – Will become a full time assisted living resident @ Cedar Bay West, 5555 Cedar Bay Drive (Apt. #2151), West Bend, WI 53095 (1-262-353-7840). He is too much a fall-risk to be able to live independently with me without both he and I worrying; while he and I will miss being at home together, we both recognize that his safety is paramount, so we chose this together in complete agreement. We appreciate your support and your prayers!

Making Sense of Suffering: Stations of the Cross – How do Christians make sense of crosses we bear? The questions of why suffering exists and what purpose it may serve find answer in Christ's transformation of suffering through love which is one of the spiritual fruits of praying the Stations of the Cross. While this devotion gets our attention more in Lent, those pictures hang before us always, inviting contemplation. The Stations of the Cross find their roots with the Franciscans who helped rebuild the Christian sites of the Holy Land following Medieval Crusades. Given a prominence of Christ's passion within their spirituality, the order encouraged Jerusalem pilgrims to walk Christ's way to Calvary as a pious devotion; its' enduring relevance made it spread rapidly. Over time, the Pope gave Franciscans permission to erect "stations" of the cross for popular devotion throughout the world; these were originally erected outdoors (like Holy Hill), sometimes along the road between one town and another, sometimes along the edges of cemeteries for a mourner to pray while visiting. They could not be erected without the special permission of the Franciscans. St. John Paul II said that we find the salvific meaning of sorrow and valid answers to our questions about it in the loving way in which Christ suffered for us. When condemned to death, He chose to accept it freely, not as a tax levied; when He fell three times, He showed that discouragement, exhaustion, and failure do not have the final word – every time He was brought low, He got up; on the way to Calvary, He was attentive, receptive to the compassion of others, showing that love received and given, especially amidst the most difficult of circumstances, can heal us, transform sufferings into a gift of self in imitation of Christ. "If God gives you an abundant harvest of trials, it is a sign of great holiness which He desires you to attain. Do you want to become a great saint? Ask God to send you many sufferings!" (Ignatius Loyola)

Discovered In Our Archives – Was the original decree giving permission for placement of Stations of the Cross in our church; as our church was dedicated in 1918 and this permission letter is dated 1923, these were apparently added to the church sometime after its' construction. Originally written in Latin, loose translation might say: Testimony to the Canonical Erection of the Holy Way of the Cross: "By the power and special faculties given to me by the Most Reverend Father General of the Friars Minor, by way of the rescript of February 14, 1923, I, Fr. Calecantic Grimm OMCap, direct the Way of the Cross together with indulgences profitable for all the Christian faithful, be erected in the Church of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Allenton, Wisconsin, in accord with the rules of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences, dated May 10, 1742. In our faith, this testimony is made by my hand, the 25th day of the month of February, 1923, by Fr. Calecantic Grimm OMCap." This document has been re-posted near the Stations of the Cross for your viewing!

Ash Wednesday/Valentine's Day – Has received no special dispensation from Archbishop Listecki and therefore is to be traditionally observed as a day of both fast and abstinence; as the first day of Lent & Good Friday are the only days each year on which both of these penitential disciplines must be observed together, this is not all that much for Jesus and His Church to ask of you and I; St. Valentine would encourage us to discipline ourselves and to grow in true love!
